Here are a few words about the ministry of Reuben Gilchrist

Reuben and Catherine serve in the border area of McAllen, Texas and Reynosa, Mexico. They founded and Reuben serves as pastor of "The People's Baptist Church" in a farming village near Reynosa, Mexico and have dedicated themselves to helping and encouraging churches and individuals in the region. They serve local churches by providing ministry tools, teaching aids, and film evangelism. They distribute food and clothing to needy families. They have host several mission teams each year.

Reuben has a very good working knowledge of the area and is respected and appreciated by the Mexican people. You can reach them by e-mail gilchrist10@juno.com They have been associated with Crossover Ministries since 1998 and much of their support is forwarded to them by Crossover Ministries.
